DESCRIPTION

Konditaget Luders is a recreational space on top of a multi-storey car park in Copenhagen's Nordhavn district. In this densely built-up area, the 2,400 m² rooftop makes for an alternative urban space and playground that is open to everyone. JAJA Architects has designed the building that rises 24 meters from the ground, offering a beautiful view of the Sound and harbour from the roof. Bring the kids for an active outing, or use the roof's facilities for your morning workout. Konditaget Luders has room for many types of training, including crossfit, TRX training, box jumps, panna football, a 60 meters sprint course, trampolines, swings, and a climbing spiral.
